An Open Letter to the LGBTQ+ Community

Nov 9, 2022 | ⌚ 5 min read

★ 17    💬 34    👁 750

Dear LGBTQIA or however many letters there are I don't care anymore

Why do you keep protecting villains within your own ranks? Why do you allow your community to be filled with predatory monsters and try to silence anyone who dares speak up about this? You want to talk about equal rights and being treated fairly yet act like I am evil for saying that giving kids puberty blockers is immoral and reckless and pedophiles must be given no sympathy whatsoever. You know what? I don't care, the community surrounding you all is toxic and must be reformed from the inside!

Dear LGBTQIA+ people, stop pretending like you're rebelling against some homophobic, transphobic or queerphobic establishment. The fact is that you have become part of the establishment! The people on CNN? The Education Systems? Internet companies? They will go out of their way to stop anyone who says ill about you! Even those who are part of your community aren't safe if they commit

Dear kids who are confused about their sexuality. You have it rough, not only because you have an identity crisis but also because the people who should be there to help you through this are the ones who might do permanent psychological damage on you. I hope for your sake that it won't happen like that, but I unfortunately am not the most optimistic person on this subject. I'm just sorry I can't be there when it happens.

Dear Paul Hruz, Paul McHugh, and Lawrence Mayer, Sorry the medical community didn't listen to your warnings. There unfortunately are many doctors who will go against their better judgement for the sake of an ideology. Of fucking course.

Dear Truscum Movement, you also deserve an apology for how people have been manipulated. Science being ignored for the sake of ideological warfare is unfortunately a sad truth in this day and age, but unfortunately some sick fetishists on Tumblr don't think so.

Dear Islamic Republic of Iran, I knew you were monsters who want me dead on the grounds of being Jewish but I honestly went a long time without knowing the truth! People may be getting tranny surgeries in your borders but I know exactly why you're doing this. You are now on track to psychologically damage millions of people for your own twisted version of Islam. Trump should have declared war on you, you beastly fucks,

Dear Keffals, I don't know how you manage to exist in a public space. I would say you're sucking Jeff Bezos but even he would be too much for your degenerate ass. Oh its not because of the t-porn you did years ago, its the fact that nothing is good enough for you. Even high profile leftists are transphobes in your eyes. Kiwifarms needs to die because they said bat things about you. How dare people know that I ran a Discord kink server that targeted minors and taught kids how to transition themselves behind their parents backs? At the very least there's no proof you actually sexually assaulted a kid but I don't put it past you.

Dear Parents of not gender-conforming kids, DO NOT change your kids genders yet. You may think you're being progressive but the fact is that you are being that's reinforcing them. The fact is a good chunk of these people turn out to be gay or bisexual. It would be one thing if this was post puberty but if you won't let your kid watch Family Guy you as hell shouldn't be doing things like this to them.

Dear LGBTQIA & Knuckles community, don't give me ANY excuses about how this isn't all of you or that there are plenty of straight predators as well! The fact remains that one sexual predator is one too many! You have done absolutely nothing to condone this behavior and have gotten a pass from the media, corporations and the left-wing machine. I may be harsh and I may be cruel, but this may be how we actually start ridding you guys of your more dangerous members. I know what the response is going to be about this. How what I'm doing is harmful to the community at large. "We have basic rights you know." What part of what I'm saying isn't clear. THESE PEOPLE ARE INFRINGING ON THE RIGHT TO NOT GET RAPED!!!! This is possibly one of the greatest issues for kids in the modern age and it's being suppressed for an agenda. No I'm not bitter and hateful you are. Sincerely, some angry autistic asshole who wishes he didn't have to talk about this.

I got this archived: <https://archive.ph/kcB6F>

Also, there's a group of gays going against the predators called "Gays Against Groomers". So at least we got some members of the LGBT fighting for justice.

The Gays against Groomers group is a day late and a dollar short. They needed to have been proactive ages ago. The genie is out of the bottle now and they're not going to convince many people that homosexuality isn't the gateway to pedophilia. It's not a case of where every gay person gradually shifts to being a pedo, but that the movement itself provides cover to the actual pedos. It's the "One Bad Apple" situation where the sins of the worst of the worst will be cast upon the whole group. That's what happened when the Roman Empire fell, there was a hard snap back to morality and decency. The homosexuals were made to get back in closet for nearly two thousand years.

And I'd also like to point out that there's also an active push on social media to ban and censor the Gays against Groomers group. That should tell us all we need to know about who's running the whole rainbow movement.

My advice to the homosexuals that are truly against groomers and pedos, keep up the fight but also be prepared to go back in the closet. The backlash that's going to come your way won't stop with just the pedos. It will be a case of going scorched earth and wiping out the whole movement to make sure the pedos are removed as well. It is a case of where we were all warned in advance that permitting gay marriage would lead to where we are now, and the warnings have proven true. And once society recognizes this fact, it will take many generations before homosexuality starts becoming socially acceptable again.

Agreed, they're years too late for this. Sometimes you gotta uproot a garden in order to get rid of a pestilence. If they acknowledged they had the same basic rights as everyone else did there wouldn't have been any issues and yet they kept pushing for more and more.

It's a shame that the movement might have to be wiped out, but if they can't rein in the radicals and oust the predators then they may need to learn a hard lesson.

If and when homosexuality becomes acceptable again, they may have to be regulated and monitored to prevent the same mistakes happening again cause this seems like a

That's great, at least some of them have the sense to realize that the predators need to be exposed and ousted.

Also good on archiving it, you'll never know if DA or some radical decides to take it down and claim it was "homophobic" or some other bullshit.

Nobody likes the "I Told You So" crowds, but can we finally admit that we were warned about this crap all the way back in the 2000s, back when Obergefell v Hodges was being debated? We were warned that allowing gay marriage to become law of the land would lead to the normalization of pedophilia. I say this as a former Doubting Thomas on the issue. We were warned, and here we are.

May I also point out, that the Roman Empire's final days were plagued by this issue as well. Rampant homosexuality, rampant pedophilia. They weren't the cause of the Empire's collapse. But symptoms warning of the imminent collapse.

With the midterms having been stolen like the 2020 Election was, the only options I see remaining for us is to make sure we are stocking up on food, water, ammo, and other supplies to weather the coming economic collapse. Hope that the collapse angers the people to action and we see our leaders adequately punished for their crimes against us. Alternatively work towards balkanization that actively goes after pedophilia on both the legal and cultural level.

Yeah.... and whenever someone tries to speak out they're labeled homophobic or whatever and they're silenced for it which leads to more problems.

People fail to realize that the opposition had legitimate concerns about this and weren't being a bunch of pear clutchers most of the time.

If we ever regress (emphasis on regress) to the point of real life Handmaid's Tale, Homosexuality is considered a mental illness once again, and anything one inch deviant from what some church deems 'normal,' is set on fire....we can just look at what you just talked about right here.

The progressive moves to the far left and says 'I'm living in 2022.'

What the hell are you trying to say?

I'm basically saying, that sometimes things over-correct, and there is always the risk that, when pulling back from going into one extreme (the extreme progressive where we're headed,) that we would end up going into the other extreme, the very scenario that the progressive are so raging against. That is a trap we should be careful not to fall into.

I just want to point out, that if you want to know what a real-life Handmaid's Tale looks like, just look no further than the Middle Eastern, Islamic countries. After all, Handmaid's Tale was originally written as a critique of Islam. The movie adaptation warped and perverted it into an attack on Christianity.

Islam or Christianity, the warning still stands. We should not take things too far in the other direction.

And that's perfectly reasonable, sometimes you just gotta stay away from drama and stay neutral the best you can.

Sadly, with what's going on in current events it's getting harder to being neutral.

Thanks for you comment on my journal. I agree with much of what you wrote here, especially about the indoctrination and puberty blockers for kids. That's the kind of shit that happens when science gets coopted by a political ideology and pseudo-religious belief system. Similar things happen when fear and paranoia overcome rational thought and reason. I'm going to delete that journal of mine. It was venting but I don't have the energy right now. LOL People are irrational and insane and I guess I am insane for expecting anything to be different.

The LGBT+ Group isn't reasonable. They're fools who let the radicals run wild.

If they can't rein in their crazies or worse, refuse to oust the predators then maybe they're doing more harm than good.
